STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA. EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, }

life, liberty and property, have not been violations of the law; that none of them I shall then not hesitate to accept and stationed in such counties of this State have assumed the character of public use. as have been hitherto riotous and re combinations against the law, and that I have the honor to be, very respect fractory; and further, why have not they are all within the regular jurisdic fully,

ROBERT, K. SCOTT, Governor. condign punishment; and why the pro try. But I do not think that the advisions of Section 2 of Article 13 of the ministration of the criminal law is suffi Constitution has not been enforced, and ciently vigorous. As the Executive of also, to inform the General Assembly the State, it is impossible for me to what further legislation is necessary to superintend or control the trial of crim

But if there was any part of the State — which violence and disorder were so general as to disarm the power of the ration, thus made nor can the solicitor sion well I had foolishly passed the won't feel your soaking." such a force in the field. If by the out learning the field of the out laws who have not been brought to laws who have not laws who have n condign panishment, you mean those and shock the humanity of public opi- the mud, and I without individuals who have lately perpetrated nion, and excite the indignant activity idea which way to turn. the outrages in the counties of Spartan of those who are interested in the suffer. Down came the rain in torrents, beat-

1 am not aware that the 2nd Section complete and efficient organization of was a log hut. of the 13th article of the Constitution the machinery necessary for the admin-has not been cuforced. That section istration of criminal justice. The At-peace of the State is threatened to such ficiently represented. a degree as to warrant the exercise of the power of calling out the militia.

I think also that a corps of Detective wait. The door opened slowly, and a Police Officers should be placed under tall, thin man stood before we. given in the Section of the Constitution his control, to be used by him and the just quoted, I deeply regret that it is Solicitors, as occasion may require. I were a large broad brimmed hat thrown my duty to inform you that the condition do not propose that these officers should carelessly on his head; a cloak, much of several of the counties in the State is have any power of arrest disturbed and dangerous. In Laurens, Union and Spartanburg persons and by the law officers of the State, but the ground; his figure was spare, but very property are not secure. Repeated in crimes from which society is suffering powerful. With his left hand he held stances of violence, disregard of the law can never be suppressed without some the door, so as to be ready; to close it is and murder have been reported, and there is a well founded apprehension on preliminary investigations can be conthe part of law abiding citizens that unless the traces of guilt promptly followed up, and such testimony procured the evil will have become too great for as will justify a prosecuting officer in my attention to his face, and I must public meetings have been held in mot be abused. To carry out this plan, what is the matter? It excluded by "Suggest with the responsible and influential course of the most desperate and deprive that a contingent floid different times of Laurens and Spartanburg of Watchman.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JANUARY 25, 1871.

Timeo Danaos Et Dona Ferentes.-Virg.

DEVOTED TO LITERATURE, MORALITY AND GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.

Special Message of the Governor ever humble, friendless, or obnoxious, of order than the presence in the Courts "There's a barn at the end of the hut my forehead, and a terrible dryness signal for my death, and so remained Special Message of the Governor

REVIEW OF THE UP COUNTRY

TROUBLES.

THE PEACE OF THE COUNTRY IS NOT

THERATENED TO SUCH A DEGREE AS

TO WARRANT THE CALLING OUT OF

THE MILITIA.

THE MILITIA.

THE MILITIA.

THE MILITIA.

The Militian and that we are living in a condi
THE MILITIA.

The Calling out of the Governor in the Governor in the Governor in the contemplate of this Circuit of a magistrate who shall for the 'oss," said he, jerking his head in the direction. "You had better go the use of an armed force to punish in
The Deace of the Governor in the Country is not the use of an armed force to punish in
THE PEACE OF THE COUNTRY IS NOT

THE PEACE THE MILITIA.

WARRANT THE CALLING OUT OF THE MILITIAL THE MILI

Columbia, January 16, 1871.) that the law i-enforced, and when I Believing firmly that a vigorous adTo the Senate and House of Represental in the effort I will unhesitatingly ministration of the law will be sufficient tatives : - I have received the concurrent call upon you for the extraordinary aid, to repress crime, I make these recresolution of the Senate and House of Representatives, requesting me to inform the General Assembly why a sufficient military force for the protection of cases of reported violence are individual for those extraordinary powers, which effect the purpose herein stated inals This duty must be left to the In turnishing you such information as it is in my power to supply, and while who are the prosecuting officers of the overcoat was wet through, and my jack-It was a terrible stormy night; dark I deeply deplore the disturbances to State, and to whom the administration which your resolution refers, I can of the criminal law in their respective scarcely venture, as Executive of the spheres of duty, is committed by the State, to pronounce any of its counties same law which defines my own duties thunder rolled in every direction. Uncases of individual outrage, and while no information has been received in this doubt, but I do not think that their pleasant; but when you are alone in a office indicating anything like a county powers are sufficiently strong or their country you don't know, have lost your organization to defy or to defeat the law. means of action sufficiently large. To way, and can't see a foot beyond your I am the more cautious in this respect, illustrate my meaning more fully, each horse's nose, I don't think any one can because, it will be recollected, that very officitor has several Counties under imagine anything more unpleasant many cases of individual violence have his official charge; a murder is com hitherto been reported both from the mitted in one of the remoter districts the far, far West, in fact, at a greater counties of Abbeville and Edgefield, bu where he does not reside; a warrant is distance from the Atlantic seaboard the prompt and impartial administration of justice in these counties has proved that the civil power was sufficien for ces, and so the protection of the circumstantial power was sufficient for ces, and so the protection of the civil power was sufficient for ces, and so the protection of the latest the civil power was sufficient for ces, and so the protection of the latest the civil power was sufficient for ces, and so the protection of the latest the civil power was sufficient for ces, and so the protection of the latest the civil power was sufficient for ces, and so the protection of the latest the civil power was sufficient for ces, and so the protection of the latest the civil power was sufficient for ces, and so the protection of the latest the civil power was sufficient for ces, and so the protection of the latest the civil power was sufficient for ces, and so the civil power was sufficient for ces, and so the civil power was sufficient for ces, and so the civil power was sufficient for ces, and so the civil power was sufficient for ces, and so the civil power was sufficient for ces, and so the civil power was sufficient for ces, and so the civil power was sufficient for ces, and so the civil power was sufficient for ces, and so the civil power was sufficient for ces, and so the civil power was sufficient for ces, and so the civil power was sufficient for ces, and so the civil power was sufficient for ces, and so the civil power was sufficient for ces, and so the civil power was sufficient for ces, and so the civil power was sufficient for ces, and so the civil power was sufficient for ces, and so the civil power was sufficient for ces, and contains the civil power was sufficient for ces, and contains the civil power was sufficient for ces, and contains the civil power was sufficient for ces, and contains the civil power was sufficient for ces, and contains the civil power was sufficient for ces, and contains the civil power was sufficient for ces, and contains the civil power was sufficient for ces, and c the protection of the life, liberty and vicin are especially active. A few property of our citizens; and these count witnesses are bound over, and the papers siderable sum of money, which it was of ties are now as quiet, pesceable and are put in the hands of the Solicitor, the utmost in portance I should deliver orderly as any portion of the State - The day that the Court opens, and if a safely at its destination as soon as poseivil Courts, I must say, fr nkly, that I be blamed. He has many Courts to place where I ought to have rested for I needed no second invitation for, in bave no such a force in the field. If by the out such a force in the field is testimony. Now, in ordinary and there I was, stumbling about over at any risks to keep up my strength, so with the assumed cagerness of a regular the field and an opportunity to hear the er station before the close of evening; but the storm coming on, I lost my way, and there I was, stumbling about over the close of evening; but the storm coming on, I lost my way, and there I was, stumbling about over the close of evening; but the storm coming on, I lost my way, and there I was, stumbling about over the close of evening; but the storm coming on, I lost my way, and there I was, stumbling about over the close of evening; but the storm coming on, I lost my way, and there I was, stumbling about over the close of evening; but the storm coming on, I lost my way, and there I was, stumbling about over the close of evening; but the storm coming on, I lost my way, and there I was, stumbling about over the close of evening; but the storm coming on, I lost my way, and there I was, stumbling about over the close of evening; but the storm coming on the close of evening; but the storm coming on the close of evening; but the storm coming on the close of evening; but the storm coming on burg and Union. I can only say that ing parties, the labor of preparation was ing the muddy earth as if it wished to every effort has been made, that could spared the Solicitor, because he always wash it clean. I was wet through to lawfully be made by the Executive, to had an individual prosecutor behind the skin, and my horse at every step discover these criminals and bring them him but when the crime is one in which seemed sinking deeper and deeper into to speedy trial. In some instances those the sympathy of public opinion is not the mud, till at last he refused to move to speedy trial. In some instances those the sympathy of public opinion is not the aday that he was puff out the smoke as an ordinary man it at Silas, called upon him to stop.

THE GAME FOR LIFE.

AN ADVENTURE IN THE FAR WEST.

s spected of guilt have been committed warmly interested, or where a disturbed a step further. In value and used my would have done, but opened his mouth of guess this is a pretty shindy." said for trial, and in their cases the Execu condition of popular sentiment is not spurs into his sides, and used my whip, tive is without power, as he ought to disposed actively to assist public justice. not another oot would be move, but be without disposition, to interfere with where the parties suffering are too stood with trembling flanks and extendthe due administration of the law. In friendless to make themselves heard, ed nostrils, the picture of agonized fear; other instances the perpetrators of these then, the duty of the Solicitor, while it so I was forced to dismount and lead crimes are not known, and have not yet becomes more imperative, also becomes him. But you may judge my surprise been discovered. I can only promise more difficulty to do justice. He needs that every effort shall be made to arrest larger powers and more assistance.

I would therefore recommend a more forth my hand, and, to my delight, it provides: "The Governor shall have torney General is the proper representative serve it for my fcolhardiness in riding power to call out the militia to execute tive of the criminal justice of the State, past the station. Well, I suppose I mation in my possession that in any direct their action, and they should be Drawing the bridle over my arm, section of the State the laws are not required to report to him regularly the led my horse round the building, feelexecuted, for not a single case has been condition of the prosecutions in their ing carefully so as not to miss the doorreported in which the officers of the respective circuits and to be governed way. I passed down one side and turnlaw have been resisted in the discharge by his instructions whenever he may ed the corner, when, to my delight, I of their duties. There is no invasion deem it judicious to issue them. He perceived a light shining through some which I am called on to repel, no insur should also have the power whenever, chinks in the logs. Whithout pausing rection which I am called on to s pin his opinion the importance of the case press.

require- it, to retain assistant counsel be assembled inside. I hastened to the While I cannot say that the public and see that the State is fully and ef- manded admittance. I had not long to the worse for wear, hung from his

the evil will have become too great for ordinary remedies. I do not propose at present to refer to these crimes in detail, nor to attempt the discussion of their cases. It is enough to say that they are so grave and so numerous as to call for the unflinching application of all the power of reform which the Executive can lawfully exercise.

It is proper for me to state and I am glad to be able to do it, that the public meeting to the character and consequences of this state of affairs. and public meetings have been held, in which the responsible and influential citizens of Laurens and Spartanburg as will justify a prosecuting officer in asking from conscientious jurors a verdict of conviction. Neither the Attor of con therefore we don't lose a chance of ris- tale belonging to them." ing any when we can."

"I must beg your pardon ," I replied; "I thought you were asleep, and there-fore was quiet in case I might disturb I took hold of the bo

"Air you hungry?" he demanded. "As a hunter," was my emphatic re-

"I guess you won't object to this bit ger," he said. of corned beef then," said he, pushing some coars bread and salt meat toward

"On the contrary," I replied, "nothng could be more acceptable." "I guess you're thursty," he said, afer watching me devour the meat.

"Sahara is nothing to me," I avowed. "I don't know anything about your estness, "I once was honest." Sarah," he replied, "but I du know a girl named Polly, who does drink, she du ; a patent double pressure engine is in more liquid than a Mississippi steamload and when she's at high pressure
"Wal, that didn't make you rich?" boat, and when she's at high pressure I guess she's as dangerous.'

I expressed my sorrow at Miss Polly's pried my till, and the dollars are there."
failing, and asked him if he had any- "Whew!" whistled Silas. "I guess thing to drink.

"Wal, yes; here's some Burbon whis ky; put yourself outside that, and you my doing so evidently displeased my and was replaced by another; but the

some for your amusement."

"Now, look here, stranger, none of your impertinance. I guess you are a Bostoner, which accounts for your inbery, and it's a real one, wal, you read your next stake? it and enjoy it. But s'pose it's a false one, bout people you know nothing about, wal, you enjays it, and there isn't half the darned sight injury done. You I knew they would be his anyway, and laff or cry as much over one as the oth- therefore staked them. Need I say I er, and you don't know the people; lost? therefore, what can it matter to you he same."

Not feeling inclined to argue my friend over the matter, especially my coal-lining. as I could see that he was a man who would not take contradiction quietly, readily owned that I was wrong and he was right.

"S'pose you don't want to sleep di. rectly, stranger?"
"Indeed I do, for I am very tired."

"I guess it's not safe to sleep in these oue eye open."

Why? Surely we are safe here?" ir a stranger in these parts?"

"I am "But I guess you've heard of Silas Cass -- he dwells hereabouts"

"Just so," said Silas, pushing the whiskey bottle toward me. "S'posing

I took hold of the bottle, and kept it glued to my lips for such a length of time that Silas's eyes seemed ready to start out of their sockets.

"Guess you're a tall drinker, stran-"Yes," I replied, in as drunken a

I came by those dollars." "Bully for you." grinned Silas. "I've "Bully for you." grinned Silas. "I've heard of many a boy drinking himself In a moment I had seized his coat, out of a fortune, but ne'er a one that and putting it on, dashed from the hut drunk himself rich." "Oh," sighed I, with drunken earn-

"Once!" said he, opening his eyes

"Yes," I replied. I held a place in du; a patent double pressure engine is the Bloadway Date to gaming and drink it was Silas Cass.

nothing to her, that it ain't; she takes tellers; but I took to gaming and drink it was Silas Cass.

Till morning I dodged from bush to "No; but in a fit of despiration I em-> you did it up pretty spry ?" "You haven't any cards about you?"

> I asked "I guess I have, though," he replied;

's'posing we have a game of poker?" have no such militia forze as would be attend, very many cases to prepare, and the night, foully hoping to reach anothponder upon the weakness of human playing, only repenting my losses in a hesitated for a moment whether to atjudgment, and the unfairness of what maudin drunken way, that made my tack me or not, but seeing the party of people call "impression" in particular. companion roar with laughter. He comborsemen were armed, he turned his alone at home, they are company for "Here is a man," thought I, "that menced to thoroughly enjoy himself di- horse's head as if to galop across the everybody would proclaim a scoundrel rectly he saw my mysery; he lighted his country; but the leader of the horsemen from Lis diabolical coun enance; judg- pipe, and began smoking. He did not swung his rifle round, and presented mean, cruel and unprincipled; yet, al would have done, but opened his mouth "I guess this is a pretty shindy," though I have not seen him before, he and let the dense clouds roll round his Silas, coolly, "all about a fellow who not only gives me the shelter of his roof, horrible tusks and long, thin tongue.— has lost his money at poker." but also shares his supper and whiskey Each time he won, he seized the bottle with me. I will never trust to appear and drank heavily of the whisky. When robbed me of my money, horse and the bottle was finished, he produced clothes." whilst I had been making these reflections, I again prepared for sleep; but back of the hut. This soon disappeared, companion, for stretching out his long more he took the better he seemed. As legs to their full length-evidently to he swept up my dollars he roared with kick mine-he gave a terrible yawn. delight, flinging his huge legs about in "Darned if you ain't the slowest cass the most grotesque manner. He began I've met on this side of creation," he chanting bits of songs, certainly not fit power to can out the minima to execute the laws, repel invasion, repress insurrection, and preserve the public peace."

I cannot say with truth upon any informal laws to consult and advise with the Solicitors, but to review and in my present condition."

I cannot say with truth upon any informal laws to execute the state, past the station. Well, I suppose I live met on this side of creation," he chanting bits of songs, certainly not fit for respectable society. To make the storm without in my present condition."

I cannot say with truth upon any informal laws to go supperless to sleep, and heaven knows that is bad enough in my present condition."

I cannot say with truth upon any informal laws to go supperless to sleep, and heaven knows that is bad enough in my present condition."

I cannot say with truth upon any informal laws to go supperless to sleep, and heaven knows that is bad enough in my present condition." "I am extremely sorry that I have shook beneath the heavy claps of thunno news to give you, and unfortunately der, and the blue lightning flashed I have not the imagination of some of through the cracks between the logs our New York papers, or I would invent | that composed the walls perfectly paling the red light of our fire, and nearly blinding me.

"Lost again!" shouted Silas, as he swept up my last few dollars. "Hear fernal slowness. What's the good of a how the boys are playing skittles up paper, if there isn't something new in above! I guess that bowling saloon t? S'pose there's a murder or a rob. pays, they play pretty constant. What's "I haven't a cent," I groaned.

"I'll play you five dollars against

As Silas rose to procure some more whether it is true or false? it does just whisky, I took the opportunity of scribbling a few lines upon the back of an envelope, which I slipped into a slit in He made me stake my horse, my coat trusted to cards. Silas seemed highly delighted with my melancholy, consol- had selfish feelings in your breast? ing ma with the assurance that there guess not. parts, unless you can manage to keep were plenty more banks in the world. and I might regain my fortune. After bearing his taunts for some time I pre-"I don't know that. I calc'late you tended to cry myself asleep, but took care to place my face in such a position out appearing to watch him.

than Silas rose from the ground, and, ples lying and lain. Lay (used of pre-converted from his evil ways, an' got again. manding figure. - Washingtol correspon Struck with horrow, I could scarcely move, and with difficulty regained my dence of Herper's Bazaar.

Quietly taking off his own coat and waistcoat, which were as bad as they could be, he threw them into one corner of the room, and then, with all the cool ness imaginable, dressed himself in my garments. He again left the hut with voice as I could assume; "that's how my saddle-bags, and a few minutes afterward I heard the ring of my horse'r feet in pursuit.

I ran until almost ready to drop Still I pressed on; the spirit of revenge had entered my soul, and boro me up At last I saw a horsemen crossing the the Broadway Bank as one of the chief hill. I knew the figure but too well-bush, keeping as close to him as I dared Had I had a pistol with me I fear Silas would have stood a very poor chance. "Whew!" whistled Silas. "I guess At last I perceived a party of horsemen riding toward us, and in a minute I burst from my hiding-place and com-menced shouting as loudly as I could. "Stop him, stop him! he is a mur-derer !" Silas looked quietly behind him, and

"Stop that man," I cried; "he has

"Why, you darned viper." said Silas poker, in the block-hut?"

the log hut last night. Expecting the same fate, I wrote on an envelope these words: "I have been robbed and murdered by Silas Cass—James Ansel." You will find it in a slit in the lining of my coat, which that man now wears, for he is Silas Cass."

Middle Georgia' Now for the result. We received over 1, 250 letters, or an and preventing all unpleasant sensations, such as glimmering and wavering of sight, dizziness, &c., peculiar to all others in use.

They are mounted in the fine-t manuer in frames of the best quality, of all materials used for that purpose. Their finish and durability cannot be surpassed.

The only reasons given for not coming in the natural, healthy sight, dizziness, &c., and and preventing all unpleasant sensations, such as glimmering and wavering of sight, dizziness, &c., peculiar to all others in use.

They are mounted in the fine-t manuer in frames of the best quality, of all materials used for that purpose. Their finish and durability cannot be surpassed.

CAUTION.—None genuine unless bearing their trade mark stamped on every frame.

Scarcely had the words escaped my lips when Silas again presented his pistol, and this time with better effect, for the bullet pierced my arm, but at the same instant one of the horsemen dealt Cass a heavy blow with his rifle, and laid him senceless on the ground. Silas was handed over to the authori-tics and searched; my envelope was found upon him. The body was found in the pond as I described. My story was told and proved true, and in a few days I had the satisfaction of knowing that Silas Cass was no more.

HOW TOBR HAPPY,

What does happy mean? A little girl lately said it is "to feel as if you wanted to give all your things to your and waistcoat; in fact, everything I little sister." You smile, but I scarcepossessed. I lost all, and then threw ly see why you should. This little girl myself back as if in despair, bewailing felt that to be happy, she must be unmy bad fortune and rashness in having selfish. She was right, and you know trusted to cards. Silas seemed highly it. Did you ever feel happy when you

MRS. ROBERT E. LEE.

He turned away and left the hut, care-fully closing the door behind him. I the daughter of George Washington justice cannot be administered until the effort has been made and the failure evident.

It is therefore my intention to see system has any developed.

It is therefore my intention to see that he law is enforced, and when I fail in the effort I will unhesitatingly mistration of the law will be sufficient to represent, I would call upon you for the extraordinary aid, to which society must resort for self-protection. But at present, I would call upon to the fact that all the cases of reported violence are individual call to the society must resort that law, I will come to your attention to the fact that all the violations of the law; that none of them tooks of the law; the law, and the law tooks of the law; the bed of a pond about the strength of the took off and part tooks of t

THE FISHERMAN'S SON.

A gentleman walking on the beach came across a little boy sitting on the road by himself, looking out on the great ocean. "You like the sea, my boy; do you

"Yes sir; and I hope to follow it when I get bigger."

"It is a hard life, besides being dan gerous," said the gentleman.

"Yes sir; but Jesus Christ went to sea, and he knows the dangers; and GLOTHING, sometimes he preached out of a ship. I am sure he loves sailors," said the

"But that will not hinder you from meeting with storms, and perhaps getting shipwrecked."

"Jesus Christ rules the winds and the waves. He stopped a storm once." "He does not now," said the gentle-

"No, sir; but he will help us to trust in him; and, if we hold on to him, nothing can much harm us," said the boy. "You might be drowned."

"Yes, sir." The boy stopped. "But, you know, my soul would then fly up to you know, my soul would then fly up to I only ask my old friends to call and examine, God; and it is all fair weather up and if they do not find my goods cheaper, I will there."

"Why, my little man, you are quite a preacher !" said the gentleman.

"The sweet, quiet, happy face of the little fellow pleased me." said the gen-tleman: "and I felt that he had the best of company."

THE NORTHERN PULSE.

(Ga.) Furmer, of a late date, says : "In September, 1869, we inserted in poker, in the block-hut?"

"No," I cried; "he robbed me there, and I call upon you all to help me arrest him for having committed murder. I saw him throw the body into a pond by the log hut last night. Expecting the at once, was the difficulty in disposing trade mark stamped on every frame. of their property North, and that their minds were not at ease in regard to the safety of Northern men South, and fears that they would not be kindly received. Thus, through the Newspaper pres, we have felt the pulse of the masses North, Pacific Guano Company's and have found that there is a large army of intelligent, worthy, industrious and understanding of the advantages offere in this old Empire State of the South to help make it the garden of the world.'

IS YOUR HAIR DRY?

At a delegate election held in Wood bury, N. J., prior to the election, the colored citizens, having a majority in one of the divisions, elected one of their own race as a representative to the Republican convention. He was a preacher familiarly known as "Daddy Grimes." This action was unexpected. and not very palatable to his white con feres. After the nomination was made one of the delegates rather jeeringly called on Daddy Grimes for a speech. LIE-Lay .- Persons not grossly ig The old man rose, seriously and with norant sometimes say they will lay perfect decorum, and said: "Thar was a meaning lie down; that they had laid [lais] an hour, or that the hammer an' cheat, an' lie, an' steal' an' get drunk; that I could see all that Silas did without appearing to watch him.

No sooner had my first snore sounded

"I lay there all that uight;" its partici

"I lay there all that uight;" its partici

him, an' changed his heart; an' he was results kare been found ful' equal to the be standard fertilizers. Its economy must comment to the notice of planters generally.

For specific directions for composition and full and its hard an' he was standard fertilizers. Its economy must comment to the notice of planters generally.

For specific directions for composition and full and its hard an' he was standard fertilizers. Its economy must comment to the heart, an' he was standard fertilizers. Its economy must comment to the heart and heart a

PROMPTLY EXECUTED AT THE

OFFICE OF

EVERY DESCRIPTION

NO. 39. The Sumter Watchman,

-IN THE -

Highest Style of the Art.

HARDWARE

Store,

Main-st. under Sumter Hotel.

Family Utensils, mbracing every article in this line of business

LOWEST PRICES, FOR CASH.

He will keep always in store, a complete assort

Collin's Axes, Ames' Shovels and Spades, Trace Chains, Hoes, Rakes, Pitch Forks, Grain Cradles, Scythe Blades,

Grain Cradies, Scythe Blades, Guano Seives,
Pocket and Table Cutlery,
Brass Preserving Kettles,
Tin Ware, Window Glass—all sizes.
Persons in want of the most convenient and conomical Stoves, can be supplied with the stest improved patterns at prices which cannot still to give entire satisfaction.

fail to give entire satisfaction. FALL AND WINTER

CASSIMERES. &c.

Complete Stock of FALL AND WINTER

I am now receiving a Large and

OF EVERY DESCRIPTION. CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, TWEEDS,

cheap Shirts, Drawers, Undervests,

Gloves and Crarats, Suspenders, Collars, ALSO A FULL SUPPLY AND VARIETY O

HATS. These Goods I am determined to sell lower ing in this line alone, I am enabled to do this.

D. J. WINN, Agent.

Mr. J. Howard Brown, in the Agusta E. SPENCER & CO., New York, which are now offered to the public, are pronounced by all the celebrated Opticians of the world to be the most

"Why, you darned viper." said Silas.
"In September, 1869, we inserted in Perfect, Natural Artificial help to the human eye didn't you lose them to me fairly at 250 Northern and North Western newspapers, through the well known adverpapers, through the well known adverpapers, through the well known adverpapers."

F. HALTOM FOLSOM WATCHMAKER & JEWELER,

(CAPITAL $1,000 600.)

turers, who are only waiting for a full Soluble Pacific Guano,

THIS GUANO IS NOW SO WELL KNOWN in all the Southern States for its remarkable effects as an agency for increasing the products of labor, as not to require special recommendation from us. Its use for five years past has established its character for reliable excellence. The large fixed capital invested by the Company in this trade, affords the surest guarantee of the continued excellence of its Guano
J. N. ROBSON.
Selling Agent. Charleston, S. C.

JNO. S. REESE & CO., General Agents COMPOUND ACID

PHOSPHATE OF LIME

FOR COMPOSTING WITH COTTON SEED THIS ARTICLE IS MANUFACTURED BY the PACIFIC GUANO COMPANY at Charleston, S. C., under the Superintendence of Dr. ST. JULIEN RAVENEL. When compost-

For specific directions for composting and for supplies, apply to J N. ROPSON, Selling Agent, Charleston, S. C.
JNO. S. RESE & CO., General Agents,